OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

The Court's findings and reasons for ordering detention, including its consideration of the factors listed in 42 U.S.C. § 3142(g), were stated on the record at the June 1, 2021 hearing and are fully incorporated by this reference. The Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that there is no condition or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure the safety of the community. This evidence was discussed on the record in support of the Court's reasoning, and includes, but is not limited to evidence that Defendant: (1) has three criminal bench warrants for failure to appear, and has failed to appear for sentencing; (2) has multiple prior felony convictions involving illegal or fraudulent financial devices or uses thereof and has committed crimes while awaiting sentencing; (3) has multiple violations of probation, resulting in his loss of HYTA status; (4) has been electronically linked to and found at property where a search was carried out and at which a large number of high-powered weapons (including stolen weapons and weapons with obliterated serial numbers and converted to permit automatic fire) and ammunition, as well as large amounts of fentanyl, cocaine and methamphetamine were located; (5) was seen in multiple Instagram and social media photographs or videos in possession of weapons, including an AR-15 which has been ballistically linked to seven different crimes scenes in which shots were fired in Detroit since October 2020, including multiple instances in which people were shot, including one where a victim who was shot twice and died; (6) has been linked to the scene of the fatal shooting through his electronic footprint; and, (7) has been been in possession of and driven a stolen vehicle which is linked to one or more of the shootings described above and has been used to flee from law enforcement

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
